DINING

FEDERAL STREET is home to a selection of restaurants from some of Auckland's most well-known chefs including Nic Watt, Sean Connolly, Al Brown and Peter Gordon. Located at the base of the Sky Tower, some of our favourites on Federal Street include Depot, The Grill, Bellota and the Federal Street Delicatessen.

THE VIADUCT & NORTH WHARF is the place to go if you love dining by the water. With a wide range of bars and restaurants, there's plenty to choose from. Look out for Soul Bar & Bistro and Oyster & Chop or take a short stroll across Wynyard Crossing to North Wharf and check out Baduzzi and Miss Clawdy.

BRITOMART is an exciting collection of restaurants and bars amid world-class fashion boutiques and art spaces right by the waterfront. Some of our recommendations in and around the Pavilions include Café Hanoi, Ortolana, Ebisu and Ostro.

ELLIOTT STABLES is Auckland city's international dining hub. Restaurants offering food from all around the world including French, Japanese, German and American are centred around a beautiful indoor courtyard, making this a relaxed dining option with something to suit all appetites.

CITY WORKS DEPOT is a collective of trendy eateries and stores dedicated to food, beauty and shopping. Odettes Eatery, The Food Truck Garage, Best Ugly Bagel and The Botanist are all great spots for lunch or a caffeine hit.

SHOPPING

BRITOMART has cemented itself as the city's home for New Zealand fashion, including stores from famous designers Karen Walker, Kate Sylvester, Zambesi, and World, plus international boutiques such as Tiffany & Co., lululemon athletica, Jo Malone and Ted Baker.

QUEEN STREET is the city's main strip running right through the centre of town with a diverse range of shopping options including Topshop. At the lower end of Queen Street you'll find stores from luxury labels Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Prada, Dior and Swarovski.

HIGH STREET, which runs parallel to Queen Street, is home to some of Auckland's best independent fashion boutiques such as Crane Brothers and Workshop. Be sure to take a detour onto Vulcan Lane or stop in at Hotel DeBrett for a drink between stores.

T GALLERIA BY DFS is a duty free department store located in a beautiful historic building in Auckland's downtown area. Visit T Galleria for international designers including Chloé, Burberry, Marc Jacobs, Vera Wang and many more.

SMITH & CAUGHEY'S is Auckland's oldest department store, with floors dedicated to beauty and cosmetics, high-end mens and womenswear, and a great selection of childrenswear, homewares and gifts.

ATTRACTIONS, ARTS

& CULTURE

THE SKY TOWER is the most iconic building in Auckland's sky line. Travel up 192 meters and experience the breathtaking views, indulge in a meal at one of SKYCITY's restaurants, or take part in a SkyJump if you're feeling adventurous.

AUCKLAND ART GALLERY holds the country's most extensive and preeminent collection of New Zealand and international art. Explore this treasure trove of historic, modern and contemporary art, go to a talk or a film screening, and relax at the Mojo at Auckland Art Gallery café on Level 1.

NEW ZEALAND MARITIME MUSEUM is the place to learn all about New Zealand's rich maritime history and how it has shaped the nation through interactive and immersive exhibitions and galleries.

THE WATERFRONT is the perfect place to discover why Auckland is so often called the City of Sails. Marvel at the super yachts in the Viaduct, and explore Wynyard Quarter and Silo Park. The many eateries along North Wharf also make the Waterfront a great place to have a long lunch or an evening drink.

AUCKLAND MUSEUM is located in the beautiful Auckland Domain; just a 7 minute taxi ride from Queens Wharf. Experience a traditional Māori cultural performance with daily shows at 11am, 12pm, 1.30pm, and 2.30pm.
